Feb. 28. NAT.

Saved a Soldier's Life.

Facing death from shot and shell in the civil war was more agreeable to J. A. Stone, of Kemp, Tex., than facing it from what doctors said was consumption. "I contracted a stubborn cold," he writes, "that developed a cough, that stuck to me in spite of all remedies for years. My weight ran down to 130 pounds. Then I began to use Dr. King's New Discovery, which completely cured me. I now weigh 178 pounds." For coughs, colds, la grippe, asthma, hemorrhage, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough and lung trouble, it's supreme. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all dealers.

Feb. 28. DAISY.

Berry Smith moved to Quicksand last Sunday, where he will make his future home.

Asbury Bank's little child was seriously burned last week, and is not expected to live.

Several from this place attended the social given by Crockett Rose and wife, on Stillwater, Saturday night.

Esther Pratt returned Friday from Lexington, where had been visiting the works of Day, Taylor & Clay on Rose fork.

Pres Patrick began teaching a singing school at the Saint church Saturday night, and will continue for 12 successive nights.

Miss Emma Turner, of Simpson, who has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. G. W. Taylor, for the past three weeks, returned home a few days since.

Feb. 28. SKIDOO.

Deafness Cannot be Cured

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surface.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circular free.

F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by Druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

How Good News Spreads.

"I am 70 years old and travel most of the time," writes B. F. Tolson, of Elizabethtown, Ky.

Everywhere I go I recommend Electric Bitters, because I owe my excellent health and vitality to them. They effect a cure every time.

They never fail to tone the stomach, regulate the kidneys and bowels, stimulate the liver, invigorate the nerves and purify the blood. They work wonders for weak, run-down men and women, restoring strength, vigor and health that's a daily joy. Try them. Only 50c. Satisfaction is positively guaranteed by all dealers.

Feb. 28. BLACK EYES.

Stubborn as Mules

are liver and bowels sometimes; seem to balk without cause. Then there's trouble—loss of appetite, indigestion, nervousness, despondency, headache. But such troubles fly before Dr. King's New Life Pills, the world's best stomach and liver remedy. So easy. 25c at all dealers.

WHEN it comes to cold weather Peary's adventure at the North Pole is not in it. From Argenta, high up in the mountains of Montana, comes the report that last week thermometers registered 58 degrees below zero, while in the flats below it registered 38 below.

IN Canada meat sells at from 7 to 17 cents less on the pound than it does just across the line in the United States. The difference is caused by the fact that Canada has no tariff on meat, while the United States has a high tariff on this article of food. Neither is there a meat trust in Canada, while in the United States there is one.

A SENSATION was created by Senator Aldrich, the great Republican leader, when in a recent speech he said that three hundred million dollars is wasted annually by Congress. As the Republicans have the spending of the money and as he is the acknowledged leader of that party in the Senate, the admission is regarded as significant.

MULES are not very plentiful in the state and prices are high, as evidenced by the daily sales. There was a time when in several counties on any court day a carload of mules could be picked up at an hour's notice. But that day is past. It is high time that the breeders of this state awaken to the fact that plenty of good brood mares are needed, and that the raising of mules is very lucrative.

EVERY time a farmer comes to town he complains of the miserable condition of the roads. Now this is all right so far as it goes, but is not the farmer in the main responsible for this condition of affairs? In Estill county a plan is on foot to build several miles of good roads in each direction out of Irvine, and a proposition has been made by the people of Wiseman- town to bear equal the expense with the county in constructing a turnpike from that point to the county seat, and we assuredly believe that if the people of Hazel Green were to earnestly take the matter in hand a good pike could be built connecting Hazel Green with Helechawa. It only remains for the people to act. Who will take the initiative and start the good roads movement?

OUR readers will remember that THE HERALD some time ago suggested the propriety of the citizens of this section buying a small farm and presenting it to the C. W. B. M. to be used as an auxiliary to the Hazel Green Academy. Now it is understood just such a farm as they need is for sale, and as it adjoins the campus it is well suited in every way. There are 21 acres of bottom land in the Dr. Center place and it can be purchased for $1,000. It is cheap enough and surely the amount should be readily raised. Within a radius of five miles nearly every farmer benefits through Hazel Green Academy, and if each one would give $10, the amount could soon be raised. Subscription papers are now being circulated.

WE received a copy of the speech of Stanley Milward, of Lexington, delivered before the State Farmers Institute at Frankfort last week. It showed the excellency of the Holstein breed of cattle in a very comprehensive manner, but is too voluminous to publish in our columns.

THE grand jury of Hudson county, N. J., has found indictments against six packing companies and twenty-one packers charged with conspiracy in limiting the supply of meats and other foodstuffs.

IN Buffalo, N. Y., and Columbus, Ohio, hogs were quoted last Friday at $10 per 100, while in other markets they were $9.65 to $9.85.

Editor Perry, of the Winchester Sun-Sentinel, does not exaggerate much when he makes the following statement:

"I came near being convicted once and sent to Frankfort as a member of the legislature a number of years ago. I have been thankful ever since that the jury of voters failed to make a verdict in my favor. In all of the years that I can remember there has not been a popular legislature, the only difference is that, as time goes on this body gets to be more unpopular. I have no doubt that honest men are sometimes sent to the legislature, but it is rare that they get rid of that odium. It is said that nothing is ever so bad that there is not some good in it. I will have to wait until the legislature adjourns before admitting the truth of that saying."

Welcome Weekly Visitor.

Livingston, Tenn., Feb. 10. Spencer Cooper, Hazel Green, Ky.

Dear Friend: You will find $2 enclosed for our subscription to THE HERALD. Apply it on past dues and credit us as far as will go. We enjoy the weekly visit of your paper. We are rejoiced to hear of your success in the school. Our hearts are with you. We love Hazel Green and all her people. Every success in school, church and business gratifies us. We are pleased with your editorials, that you are standing square on all moral questions. We are with you in all your efforts for civic righteousness. Give our love to all friends. Remember us to your good wife. Mrs. Berthick often speaks of her. Give our greetings to the faculty and school, the church and cemetery association, printing force and business men. We are enjoying our new home. Every one is loyal to the school. We have 486 enrolled. We appreciate having Prof. Long with us. He has been a very able assistant, and is very much liked by citizens and students. Hazel Green may well be proud of him as her son. We pray that you may be kept in health and strength for many years of service to your fellow-citizens. My wife joins me in Christian love and greetings. If you ever become tired of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel please let us know, we have a crying need for them here. We have found it impossible to duplicate them.

Yours in Our Master's service,
H. J. DERTHICK.

LEXIE.
Preparing ground for corn is the order of the day.

Bill Byrd went to Campton on business last Sunday.

Lloyd Lacy was a guest of Uncle Seborn Trimble Sunday.

Charlie Rose, of this place, made a trip to Gillmore Sunday.

Nelson Hollon, our expert tie maker, is at present making ties for E. M. Russell.

J. B. Elkins and wife and S. S. Rose and wife were guests of Joseph P. Rose and wife Sunday.

Jeff M. Rose sold his favorite buggy horse, "Old Nat," to S. S. Rose for a private consideration. S. S. Rose bought a fine four-year-old mule from a man by the name of Burchfield for a private price.

Heddie Holbrooks, of Hunting creek, in Breathitt county, passed through here Monday en route to H. G. A.

Ward Ely, of Gillmore, was in this section Sunday. I suppose an everblooming Rose was the attraction.

Floyd Murphy, who has been working at John D. Rose's saw mill for the past month, has returned home for a rest.

County Attorney S. G. Sample, of Campton, passed through here Monday, but as to where he was going the writer failed to learn.

Mrs. Joe Cecil, of Ezel, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. J. M. Rose, at this place, for the past two weeks returned home Saturday.

S. S. Rose, our hustling farmer and trader, is building a new cottage, which will be occupied by D. B. Gilly during the coming season.

Curtis Byrd, the lucky hunter, went out 'possum hunting the other night and returned home before 9 o'clock with nine 'possums. It looks like the others would take the hint.

Feb. 28. OLD SPORT.

LANDSAW.
J. M. Cockerham and Wm. Dalton visited on Holly Sunday.

H. J. Spencer is building on the farm recently bought of John Chambers.

Curtis Halsey, the produce dealer, shipped a lot of chickens, geese and ducks this week.

Willie Taylor, of Malaga, was here today and bought a lot of corn from E. T. Kash.

Rollin Combs, of H. G. A., has come in home for a couple of days. He will return Wednesday.

James Whisman, merchant and farmer of Fincastle, is visiting his father and brother, John and H. L. Whisman.

N. L. Combs is trying to get done husking corn. He says that as long as he has corn in the field he will not be out.

A Mr. Dykes, of Lee City, was in this section last of the week buying poultry, and stayed over Sunday night here.

N. L. Combs and Robt. Hollon, deputy sheriffs, returned last Friday from a several days' trip to Lee City and locality.

W. C. and Grant Rose and Jas. Smith, who have been at Elmerdorff farm for some time, came in home last week and will try their luck at farming this season. The outlook is good, boys.

Sheriff Sally, with Deputies Oliver and Combs, arrested Kelse Avey at the band mill above here. He was arrested with writs sent from Menifee county, and they will take him to Frenchburg at once.

The constable of Lee City precinct, with a Mr. Fugate, of Helechawa, passed through here with Lee Roy Peyton, whom they were taking to Campton to answer for some fines against him and on a charge of concealed weapons.

Should Have Monument.

In these days of monuments in memory of men who have done things for their fellow men, no memory is more worthy of honor than a pioneer Baptist preacher, Rev. Robert Elkin. His was the only instance in the history of our state where a church emigrated as such. He was a pastor for years of Providence church, of this country, the first church in this section of the state, and as such did much to give form and character to the young commonwealth. He was a born leader of men and stood for that which was just and right at a time when there was little law and great temptation to forget the foundation principles of Christianity. His remains are buried not far from the present location of the church he loved and served, in a bluegrass pasture, and unmarked save by a simple limestone headstone, and nothing to distinguish it from other graves around it. Very few, if any of those now living, can point with certainty to the grave, and the Baptists of the state should rescue from the oblivion which will soon envelop it, the last resting place of one who did so much for the state and for his church. — Winchester Democrat.

Women as Well as Men are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy.

The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, Home of Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers who found Swamp-Root to be just the remedy needed.

In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Desperate Coughs

Dangerous coughs. Extremely perilous coughs. Coughs that rasp and tear the throat and lungs. Coughs that shake the whole body. You need a regular medicine, a doctor's medicine, for such a cough. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Cherry Pectoral.

We publish our formulas
We banish alcohol
from our medicines
We urge you to see your doctor

Ayer's

Any good doctor will tell you that a medicine like Ayer's Cherry Pectoral cannot do its best work if the bowels are constipated. Ask your doctor if he knows anything better than Ayer's Pills for correcting this sluggishness of the liver.

THE HERALD.

The wife of John Sebastian, of Daysboro, has been and is still quite sick.

Rev. Johnny Barker, of Stillwater, will preach at Consolation next Sunday.

Lock Montgomery, a son of Bill Montgomery, of Daysboro, is quite sick with pneumonia.

Jimmie Tibbs has the thanks of the editor for four or five large twists of mild home-grown tobacco.

Sam Metzer, the drummer, and his driver were guests of the Cecil House from Saturday until Tuesday.

Mrs. Frank Johnson, who is at the home of her son, W. B. Johnson, is quite sick with some pulmonary trouble.

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

Those subscribers from whom we agreed to take Irish potatoes will please deliver them at once as our 'tater supply is slim.

Courtney Barker last week moved to the farm of Seborn Walters, near town, after a residence of about one month on Lacy creek.

Curt Rose, with Watts, Ritter & Co., had his line of sample notions and dry goods on exhibition in the vacant store room Tuesday.

John Rice and wife, of Magoffin county, are visiting Mrs. Rice's mother, Mrs. Johnson, who is at the home of her son, W. B. Johnson.

John Fetterly is building an oven in which to burn his tiling and judging from appearances it will certainly do the work in fine shape.

A son of Stephen Rose, of Stillwater, was operated on at a hospital in Lexington for white swelling and died at that place a few days ago.

Murphy correspondence letter was miscarried last week and did not reach this office until Thursday evening, which accounts for its non-appearance.

Robert Cecil will leave Monday for Cincinnati to buy a spring stock of goods for Cecil Bros. and says when he returns he will have the best in the land.

Miss Faley Long is expected home this week, though she may not possibly come until next week. But when she does she will surprise the ladies with an up-to-date stock.

Tom Lee, one of our progressive farmers, reports that a Duroc Jersey sow a few days since brought him 16 very pretty pigs. If all our farmers were like Mr. Lee the hog crop would soon meet the demand upon it.

Inadvertently we last week failed to state that the reliable nurserymen of Lexington, H. F. Hillemeyer & Sons, are ready to furnish any and everything in their line that may be desired. They now have one million strawberry plants on hand to which they call special attention. Send for catalog.

Visits the Reform School.

M. B. T. Adams, colored, of Toliver, recently visited the Colored Kentucky House of Reform to visit India Adams, who is very sick with pneumonia. He stayed at the hospital two nights and visited the different parts of the institution. In the chair shop he saw the boys at work making fine rocking chairs. He took dinner in the boys' dormitory and visited the sleeping room. The latter, he says, is horrible. He was also in the girls' school and the dress-making department. In some respects things are excellent and others horrible. Some times the boys are given as many as 100 lashes. He says some of the children do not know where their homes are, and the manager told him of one boy who had been there for nine years and they did not know where to send him. All the officers and teachers are colored, and the school is located at Greendale, near Lexington.

A Good Woman Gone.

Mrs. Betsy Combs, aged 76 years, died at her home, near Consolation, Friday afternoon of la grippe.

"Granny," as she was generally called, was a woman of remarkable vitality and energy. For the last few years she had devoted her attention to the raising of four of her grandchildren, children of Mrs. George Coldiron, deceased, which did much to sap her vitality. She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Elmina Jordan and Mrs. John White, nee Cheneau, and a host of grandchildren and great-grandchildren. She was a Combs before marriage. Her remains were laid to rest at the Public Square burying ground Saturday afternoon.

A Serious Accident.

John Cecil, a farmer of Montgomery county, living on the Sharpsburg pike, had his left leg broken just above the ankle, both bones, and the ankle joint crushed. He was feeding a hay baler at the time and his foot was caught by the block. Mr. Cecil is a native of this county and lived in this vicinity until a few years ago. He has a host of friends who will regret to hear of his serious accident and all of them hope he will soon be himself again. He is the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Cecil of Consolation.

The time is at hand when farmers are considering the question of breeding for the next season. There is no better way of reaching them than through the columns of THE HERALD. Those who have stallions or jacks for public use would consult their own interests by calling at this office and see what we can do for them in the way of bills or cards. Come and see samples, and get our prices before sending away to have them printed.

A great deal of sickness has been reported throughout this section by our resident physicians. The prevalent disease seems to be the old-fashioned la grippe which in some instances develops into pneumonia, and several cases have proved fatal. Most of these cases are brought on by a slight cold, and too much care can not be exercised at this season when it is warm one day and freezing the next.

Will F. Wheeler, son of our fellow townsman Judge Geo. Wheeler, who was until recently city editor of the Lexington Herald, is now copy holder on the New York Evening Journal, where he puts in his extra time. He was appointed to a scholarship in Columbia University and is taking a special course of history and economics. He received the degree of A. B. from Transylvania University in 1908.

There is a big revival meeting in progress at Laurel church. Revs. Boons Center, Hoy Crawford, Jeff Edwards and others are preaching and exhorting. About 25 were at the mourners' bench Sunday night, and several have been converted. The meeting is still holding interest for the people and may continue for a week more.

Inadvertently we last week failed to state that the reliable nurserymen of Lexington, H. F. Hillemeyer & Sons, are ready to furnish any and everything in their line that may be desired. They now have one million strawberry plants on hand to which they call special attention. Send for catalog.

H. G. A. Notes.

A Mr. Sweeney, of Simpson, was visiting his daughter, Lucy, Sunday.

A Mr. Holbrooks and wife, of Bays, are visiting their daughter, Della, at this writing.

Miss Miller was called to meet the State Board of the C. W. B. M., at Lexington, last Friday.

There were five that joined the Christian church Sunday night, and were baptized Monday afternoon.

Charley Childers left school this morning. He will not return, as his father is moving to Montgomery county.

Quite a crowd of the home people enjoyed Sunday afternoon by taking an old-time country walk and going to the Swango Springs.

The H. B. boys rendered their program in the industrial building Monday night. It was good. The U. Ds. gave their program as usual.

Taylor Taulbee, accompanied by Prof. Clark, of Winchester, was visiting the school Saturday. We are always glad to have such men visit us.

Bro. Ragan visited the school Tuesday morning. He gave us a very interesting talk on life and its value. We are glad to have him with us.

"Miss Nancy Marier Riddleback" gave an old-time exhibition in the chapel Saturday night. There was a large crowd and all enjoyed it to the fullest.

Mrs. Hines, teacher of mathematics, has been in Lexington taking a medical treatment for the past two weeks, but we are glad to say that she will be back with us by the last of the week.

Good Prospects.

Prospects for an excellent crop of fruit, small grain and other products of the Blue Grass farm are said to be bright this year, and no finer prospects for fruit could be asked for. Small fruit, such as raspberries, blackberries and currants have almost been unharmed by the winter. A big corn crop will be grown this year and much attention will be paid to the breed. Owing to the dryness of the snow, all grass and small grain covered has been kept warmer than usual and early crops, generally, are expected.

Hogs For Sale.

R. J. McLin has 10 fine fat hogs for sale—the nicest in the county. Call on him for further particulars.

Saturday next is the day when John H. Pieratt will cry off the sale of John M. Rose's residence and eight or ten other desirable lots. Be sure to attend if you want a good investment in Hazel Green real estate.

Danville, the pioneer local option town in Kentucky, having been "dry" forty years, has determined to keep up its reputation. Last week officers made a concerted raid on blind tiger keepers and bootleggers with the result that 28 them were bagged. One has enough charges against him to send him to the workhouse for fifteen years.

While digging into a hole to capture a rabbit Grant Bennett and Gordon Farrow unearthed an old tin can containing $482 in gold and silver coin in Carter county. A cabin near the place where the money was found was occupied a quarter of a century ago by John Stevenson, an old hermit, who died suddenly.

Don't throw away and abandon your granite, enameled or porcelain lined cooking utensils or dishpans just because there is a small hole in them. Bring them to THE HERALD office and see how neatly and cheaply they can be made good as new.

W. T. Swango, who about a year since bought a farm on the Howard's Mill pike, in Montgomery county, at $80 per acre, a few days since disposed of the same property at an advance of $20 per acre, Clayton Howell, a native of that county, being the purchaser.

Inadvertently we last week failed to state that the reliable nurserymen of Lexington, H. F. Hillemeyer & Sons, are ready to furnish any and everything in their line that may be desired. They now have one million strawberry plants on hand to which they call special attention. Send for catalog.

The drilling force of the New Domain Oil and Gas Co. has suspended operations for a while, but will start up as soon as they receive a car load of "stems," now en route. A Mr. Fowler is superintendent of the field on Gillmore, while Sam Spence and Will Foreman are the master drillers.

KENTUCKY KERNELS

Carefully Collated and Concisely Chronicled.

The dog tax in Bourbon county will pay only about sixty-three per cent of the sheep claims.

Circuit court convened at Hopkinsville last week with over 500 cases on the docket, 100 of which are for divorce.

Robert Barr, Jr., charged with complicity in the killing of Hiram Hedges, in Nicholas county, was released on a bond of $10,000.

Politics having taken an upper hand in the deliberations of the State Farmers Institute at Frankfort last week, what little good may have been accomplished was irretrievably lost.

Mrs. G. L. Burk, living about four miles southwest of Louisa, was severely, if not fatally, burned by an explosion of crude coal oil while attempting to start a fire in a cook stove.

There being no opposition to Hon. Oliver James as Democratic candidate for congressman from the First district, the committee met in Paducah last week and declared him the nominee.

Four prisoners made their escape from the Rowan county jail, at Morehead, one night last week, by sawing the bars in two. One prisoner, charged with selling liquor, refused to join the others.

The farmers of Estill county having pledged themselves to raise at least one hundred acres of broom corn this year, a broom factory will be started in Irvine. Why not try it around here?

Camillos Arnett, who was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary for the killing of George Anderson, in Magoffin county, will have to serve out his term, the Court of Appeals having affirmed the verdict.

The addition to the Institute for Feeble Minded Children, at Frankfort, having been completed, the state is now prepared to accommodate 100 additional. The institution has been so crowded for some time that no more inmates could be received.

The Paintsville Herald tells of a smart young man living in the Muddy Branch neighborhood, in Johnson county, who was fined $20 and sent to jail for slapping an old woman. A few sentences of this kind might have a beneficial effect on such "brave and chivalrous" youths.

Ten prisoners convicted at the November term of the United States court at London were discharged from the Laurel county jail last Thursday. They had served out their sixty days imprisonment and had also been kept thirty days each in default of payment of fines of $100 each.

Mrs. Goldie Cantrell, a pretty girl of 17, was sent home by the school authorities of Morehead when they found she had been attending school as "Sam Murray," dressed in boy's clothes. She stood second in her class at the time of her detection. The young woman is an orphan and makes her home with an aunt at Salt Lick. Her family is prominent in Eastern Kentucky. This is her third adventure in male attire. Some months ago she earned her living for several weeks as "news butcher" on trains.

In Fleming county, last week, Mrs. Rufus Marshall, 29 years old, was burned to death in the fire which destroyed her home. She had evidently locked her two children in the barn for safety, where they were later found, and had returned to the house to telephone for help when she was caught by the flames. Neighbors who went to the scene could see Mrs. Marshall's body lying inside the house near the telephone while the fire was raging. Her husband was not at home and the origin of the fire is unknown.

AMERICA'S GREATEST WEEKLY.

THE TOLEDO BLADE, TOLEDO, OHIO.

The Best Known Newspaper in the United States.

CIRCULATION, - - - 200,000

Popular in Every State.

The seventy-fourth year of its existence finds the Toledo Blade more popular than at any period of its remarkable career. It is now read each week by more than a million people. Its field is not circumscribed by State boundaries, but involves the length and breadth of the United States, giving it an unquestionable right of claiming to be the greatest national weekly newspaper in the country.

The Weekly Blade is distinctly a family newspaper. The one object of its publishers has always been to make it fit for the American home, for the fireside, and of interest to every member of the family. To fulfill this purpose it is kept clean and wholesome. The news of the world is handled in a comprehensive manner, and the various departments of The Blade are edited with pains-taking care. The Household page is a delight to the women and children; current affairs are treated editorially without prejudice; the serial stories are selected with the idea of pleasing the greater number of fiction lovers; the Question Bureau is a scrap-book of information; the Farmstead columns are conducted with the purpose of giving the patrons a medium for the exchange of ideas and information on farm topics. No department is neglected, but every feature is taken care of with the idea of making The Blade worth many times the price of subscription—one dollar a year.

Nervous Collapse

"I have traveled for thirty years continually. I lost a great deal of sleep, which together with constant worry left me in such a nervous state that finally, after having two collapses of nervous prostration, I was obliged to give up traveling altogether. I doctored continually but with no relief. Dr. Miles' Nervine came to my rescue—I cannot describe the suffering which this Nervine saved me. Whenever I am particularly nervous a few doses relieve me."

A. G. C. LIBBY, Wells, Me.
There are many nervous wrecks. There is nervous prostration of the stomach, of the bowels, and other organs. The brain, the kidneys, the liver, the nerve centers are all exhausted. There is but one thing to do—build up the nervous system by the use of Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine. Its strengthening influence upon the nervous system restores normal action to the organs, and when they all work in harmony, health is assured. Get a bottle from your druggist. Take it all according to directions, and if it does not benefit he will return your money.

New Way to Handle Drink Victims Is Aired in New York.

[By W. G. Shepherd, Albany, N. Y., in Louisville Herald.]

The legislature is soon to hear all about drunkards and how to handle them, from Bailey B. Burritt, of the State Charities Aid Association, when he asks for an appropriation for a state farm for drunkards.

"We're not treating our drunkards right in the United States," says Burritt. "It's a shame the way we misuse them."

"There are three kinds of drunkards. Let's call them Bill, Jim and John."

"Bill gets his wages every Saturday night and goes straight to the saloon. As soon as he gets drunk he wants to fight. The result is that a policeman arrests him."

"He is taken before a judge the next morning, and the judge either sends him to the workhouse or fines him. If Bill goes to the workhouse, he doesn't get any good out of it and his family suffers. What he needs is fresh air and his own employment to clear his mind of remorse and make it healthy again. If he is fined, his family suffers just as greatly as if he went to the workhouse."

"Jim is a different sort of a fellow. He is harmless, and on payday nights he drinks himself into a stupor. He falls on the sidewalk and a policeman, coming along, thinks he's hurt. The ambulance takes him to the hospital and there he is revived. He goes out feeling splendidly, with new reserve of strength, and, by the time payday comes again, he feels so strong and bright that he goes and does it all over again. They sober him up at the hospital, but they don't take the desire for liquor away from him any more than the workhouse authorities take it away from Bill."

"John is usually well to do, or his family is. He doesn't take his liquor in sudden and big doses. He takes it all the time and is always half drunk with drink. His family may put him in an insane asylum, but legally he is sane. And the asylum authorities don't cure him of the drink habit."

"Every state ought to have a farm for drunkards. The courts ought to realize that a man who is addicted to liquor is a diseased man, not a vicious man."

"When a man is first arrested he ought to be held until he is sober, and then released. On the second offense the man ought to be taken to court, but the judge should not fine him, but put him under a probation officer. The third offense should mean a small fine and more probation, and the man should be given an opportunity to pay his fine in installments.

Are you frequently hoarse? Do you have that annoying tickling in your throat? Does your cough annoy you at night, and do you raise mucus in the morning? Do you want relief? If so, take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and you will be pleased. Sold by all dealers.

"If the man continues to drink, the judge can sentence him to the inebriates' farm for from one to three months. If a man drinks after this his sentence should be from one to six months or a year, and the third farm sentence should not have less than a three-year maximum. However, if at any time a man at the farm shows that he has gained control of himself, he should be released immediately to go out into the world to do his share of the work."

"As we handle drunkards now, in American cities, we don't help them. We drive them down and add shame to their already great loads."

Fully nine out of every ten cases of rheumatism is simply rheumatism of the muscles due to cold or damp, or chronic rheumatism, neither of which requires any internal treatment. All that is needed to afford relief is the free application of Chamberlain's Liniment. Give it a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the quick relief which it affords. Sold by all dealers.

Some Timely Thought.

We become like the things we touch. We take the features of we look upon. Witnessed vice makes us vicious, depravity spreads. Vileness becomes less and less repulsive the more we look at it. "Evil communications corrupt good manners." An immense amount of adult depravity has its foundation laid for it in the child's first year. The street is Satan's nursery, and flashy literature his circulating library. Parents are careful to keep their children away from diphtheria and small-pox. Sin is worse than scarlet fever and more catching. The average boy that runs the street is a bad boy. If you let a good boy run along side of a bad boy, the good boy will learn all the bad boy's tricks without communicating to him any of his goodness. Diseases are catching, health is not. Thinking what is bad, soils the mind, breaks the edge of moral delicacy, and it is all one whether the soiling thought is started by crime, dramatized, indecency sculptured, indecency painted or sin printed in a paper and called news. There is no man so clean than he can afford to let his mind rest on a dirty thing.—C. H. Parkhurst, D. D., in Advance.
